

Behavioral Health Resources for Schools

Screening Tools:

School Health Assessment and Performance Evaluation System (SHAPE)

The SHAPE System is hosted by the national Center for School Mental Health (CSMH) at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. The Center promotes the importance of providing mental health services to children, adolescents, and families directly in schools and communities.

School districts, individual schools and even Educational Service Units (ESUs) can register to access a broad array of information including resources and a large compendium of screening tools.

Be Counted

Schools and school districts can use SHAPE to:

- Be counted in the National School Mental Health Census
- Achieve SHAPE recognition to increase opportunities for federal, state and local grant funding.
- Access free, targeted resources to help advance your school mental health quality and sustainability.
- Advance a data-driven mental health team process for your school or district¹.
