Youth Development in Action: Strategies for Engaging and Supporting Older Youth with System-Involvement

Project Everlast
Healthy Youth Nebraska Conference
September 21st, 2015
Objectives

This session will:

• Provide an introduction to essential concepts of Positive Youth Development,

• Help participants gain an appreciation for the experience of young people; and,

• Give participants at least one strategy to take with them to positively impact someone.
Mingle, Mingle, Huddle, Huddle
Mingle, Mingle, Huddle, Huddle

- When you were in high school/a teen, what was the most exciting thing you experienced?
- What kind of risks did you take as teenager?
- Who would like to go back to adolescence, if that were possible?

A philosophy or approach?
Defining Positive Youth Development

A philosophy or approach that guides communities in the way they organize programs, supports and opportunities so that young people can develop to their full potential.

- Focus on building positive outcomes
- Youth voice and engagement
- Long-term involvement/Developmentally appropriate
- Universal/Inclusive
- Community-based/Collaborative
Defining Positive Youth Development

- Occurs within social systems
- Promotion of Agency
  - Youth are participants, not just recipients.
- Can be disrupted by social toxicity

Services - Opportunities - Supports

- Provided to or for youth
- Intended to enhance health, safety, performance, and other forms of essential well being and physiological functioning

- Conducted with youth
- Relationships and resources to support emotional wellbeing; structure and guidance; access to info and resources

- Done by youth
- Meaningful opportunities to practice and expand on what youth know and learn – either through work, service, or advanced learning
Features of a Strength-Based Approach

- People are active participants in the helping process (empowerment)
- All people have strengths, often untapped or unrecognized
- Strengths foster motivation for growth
- Strengths are internal and environmental

Sparks

"A spark is something that gives your life meaning and purpose. It’s an interest, a passion, or a gift."
