Is This Really a Problem?

- 1 in 4 kids admit to being cyberbullied
- 65% of kids know someone being cyberbullied
- 29% of teens admit that they have posted mean info about someone else
- 24% of teens have had private or embarrassing information revealed against their will

Is This Really a Problem?

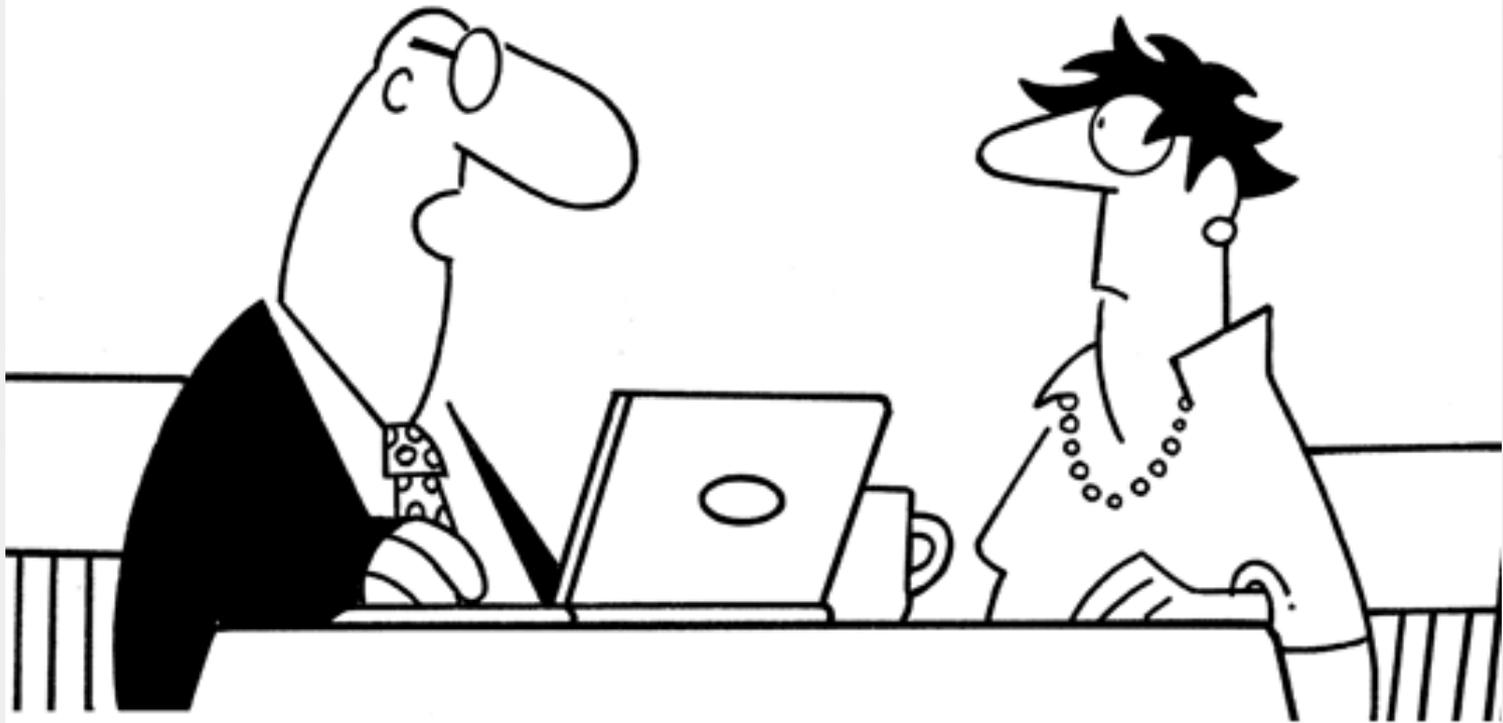

- 86% of teenagers have been “stalked by a stranger” on some social media account.
- 55% of teens admit they’ve given personal information to someone they do not know
- 30% of teens have arranged to meet someone they met on social media in person

FREMONT, Neb. -- On Wednesday morning, at approximately 7:40 a.m. the Fremont Police School Resource Officer was contacted by Administration of the Fremont High School in reference to a posting by a student on Snapchat that indicated a possible threat against the school involved what appeared to be a firearm.

Snapchat is a video messaging application. Using the application, users can take photos, record videos, add text and drawings and send them to a controlled list of recipients.

The 17-year-old juvenile male suspected of posting the information was not in school and was contacted by police at his home in Fremont.

The firearm, later determined to be an airsoft gun, was located at another residence and collected as

Gov. Pete Ricketts has urged state Sen. Bill Kintner of Papillion to resign if allegations are proven true that Kintner exchanged sexually explicit video of himself using his state computer.

A source familiar with the situation said Kintner told investigators about the video when he asked the Nebraska State Patrol for help with computer problems in July 2015.
