Supplies and Operating Expenses

Postage is necessary for the daily operation of the Parent-Child Center. It is necessary to ensure correspondence to clients, service providers, and funding sources. Based on the previous year's postage expenses, $1100 will be spent on postage in the next fiscal year. $150 or 306 stamps at .49 cents a stamp is being requested.

Communication Costs: Parent-Child Center has two office lines, plus an additional line that is used as a fax line. The annual cost of the three telephone lines and Internet services is $3,400 or $283 per month. Parent-Child Center maintains two separate lines in the shelter facility. One line is accessible to everyone staying in the shelter for any local calls they need to make. The other line is located in the office of the shelter advocate and is available for long distance and local calls. The annual cost for both lines in the shelter is $900 or $75 per month. The two bilingual client advocates also carry cell phones and answer Spanish Crisis Line calls during evenings, weekends and holidays. They are reimbursed $20 per month to cover cell phone expenses. This expense is $480 per year, or $40 per month. Parent-Child Center also maintains two, 24-hour crisis lines that can be accessed through a local number, a toll free number or the national domestic violence hotline. One Crisis Line is run in English and one is in Spanish. The crisis lines are answered by staff during office hours and then forwarded to one of the crisis line volunteers after office hours. This is an essential part of the services provided by the Parent-Child Center. Callers have immediate access to trained crisis line volunteers, who can page a client advocate if necessary. The Spanish Crisis Line is necessary because language barriers were preventing the English speaking crisis line volunteers from assisting the non-English speaking victims. We have recently collaborated with Nebraska Domestic Violence Sexual Assault Coalition to assist with the Statewide Spanish Crisis Line. So in addition to Parent-Child Center's Spanish Crisis Line, bilingual advocates also answer the Statewide Spanish Crisis Line during office hours. Based on the actual usage expenses of both lines last year it is anticipated that the annual cost of both crisis lines will be $1,550 or $129 per month. The total cost for three office lines, internet services, two crisis lines, two shelter lines and cell phone reimbursement is $6,260, or $521 per month. $1,178 is being requested for communication costs.

Insurance: Parent-Child Center is required to hold certain insurance policies with required minimums by various grant sources. This is also necessary to insure the fiscal safety of the agency and its staff and volunteers. Insurance coverage includes: Workman's Compensation, Director's Liability, Professional Liability, Inland/Auto, Commercial Property, Commercial General Liability, Flood and Umbrella. The total cost of insurance is $16,737. We are requesting $5,517 of this cost.

Accounting/Auditing Expense: Parent-Child Center is required to have an annual audit conducted. The cost of this audit is $2,400. We are requesting $2,000.

Utilities: Parent-Child Center's office is located at 1001 N. Washington in Lexington. The office serves as the main location for services because the address of the shelter is not disclosed. Based on the previous year's utility costs, $4,800 is required to pay for electricity, water and trash removal. $600 is being requested for utilities.
