Important Initials to Know

DD
Developmental Disabilities

DDD
Division of Developmental Disabilities, one of five divisions in DHHS

DHHS
Nebraska Department of Health & Human Services

---

DHHS
Division of Developmental Disabilities

Nebraska State Office Building, 3rd floor
301 Centennial Mall South
PO Box 98947
Lincoln, NE 68509-8947

Phone: 877-667-6266
Fax: 402-471-8792
E-mail: dhhs.developmentaldisabilities@nebraska.gov

---

DD Provider Resources

NEBRASKA
Good Life. Great Mission.

DEPT. OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

“Helping People Live Better Lives”
DDD values the participants who receive services through our division. We want to ensure that all DD providers, both independent and agency, have the same opportunities to learn best practices in the field.

DDD offers many resources online for easy access wherever internet is available.

This brochure will help you begin your online adventures in learning.

Dr. DDD values the participants who receive services through our division. We want to ensure that all DD providers, both independent and agency, have the same opportunities to learn best practices in the field.

DDD offers many resources online for easy access wherever internet is available.

This brochure will help you begin your online adventures in learning.

Know Your Resources

- Provider Main Page
  The online home for both independent and agency providers. You will find the DD Provider Handbook, DD Service Directory, Services Quick Guide, and information about topics affecting providers. www.dhhs.ne.gov/developmental_disabilities/Pages/aDDP.aspx

- Agency Provider Page
  Focuses on information important to agency providers, such as DHHS agreement, rates, and required forms. http://dhhs.ne.gov/developmental_disabilities/Pages/aDDP-Specialized.aspx

- Independent Provider Page
  Focuses on the unique needs of the independent provider, such as sending secure emails, fair hearings, rates, and billing. www.dhhs.ne.gov/developmental_disabilities/Pages/aDDP-Non.aspx

- Provider Bulletins Page
  When DDD needs to get important information to DD providers, a Provider Bulletin is issued. Click on “Subscribe” on this page to receive an email alert whenever a new bulletin is added. www.dhhs.ne.gov/developmental_disabilities/Pages/aDDPBulletins.aspx

Training Opportunities

- OMNI Behavioral Health
  OMNI offers training opportunities that meet DDD requirements. Fees for trainings are listed on their website. Trainings are in-person across the state and on your computer via webinar. www.omnibehavioralhealth.com/training

- Therap Training Academy
  Enrollment in Therap Training Academy is included for all Therap users. www.therapservices.net/trainingacademy

  Therap has a page specifically focused on the needs of Nebraska Independent Providers: https://www.therapservices.net/nebraska-independent-providers/

Finding Participants to Support

If you are a provider looking to work with a participant, let service coordination know!

You can also contact local advocacy groups and use statewide resources:

- Nebraska Resources and Referral System (NRRS) is a database of agencies and service providers: www.nrrs.ne.gov.
- Nebraska 211 lists information regarding Health and Human Services agencies and service providers: www.ne211.org.