

Division of Public Health – Licensure Unit PO Box 94986 Lincoln, NE 68509 402-471-2117 dhhs.licensure2117@nebraska.gov

Column 1 - APA Criteria

PSYCHOLOGY PROGRAM Equivalency Criteria

Identify below the name of the document and page number within the document that supports each criterion

Applicant Name:	First:	Middle/MI:	Last:

In addition to documenting the responses to the following, the applicant must submit the following:

- Identification of a designated director of internship training who assumed responsibility for program content and structure.
- 2. The presence of multiple interns in the program at the time of training
- 3. Detailed description of the training and educational opportunities provided for the intern.
- 4. Detailed description of the roles and responsibilities of the intern within the internship training program.
- 5. Detailed description of the pattern of supervision provided to the intern.
- 6. A contract between the intern and internship describing the agreement for training. This contract could be documented by:
 - A letter of offer and letter of acceptance
 - A document that describes the individualized contract for the training

Applicants are required to submit documentation, which supports meeting each of the criterion identified in column 1 of this document.

INSTITUTIONAL SETTING Location of University, Department or school Document Name: Page Number: Document Name: Criteria for Eligibility for Accreditation must include: Page Number: The institution is Regionally accredited The program is publicly identified as professional psychology program The program is a recognizable, coherent entity The program faculty has authority and responsibility The program has an Integrated, organized plan of study. There is a supervised practicum, internship, lab & field experience There is Identifiable psychological faculty and a Psychologist responsible for the program There is an identifiable body of students, matriculated for the psychology degree There is appropriate financial support by the institution

II. CULTURAL & INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES

A. •	Respect for Cultural & Individual Differences must be Imparted to Students and Reflected in faculty Faculty promotion Student recruitment student evaluation curriculum field training	Document Name: Page Number:
B.	Diversity of Faculty & Students is an essential goal	Document Name:

		Page Number:
C.	Develop knowledge & skills regarding diversity as: handicapping conditions	Document Name:
	different agesgenders	Page Number:
	racial & ethnic backgroundreligion
	life stylessocial & individual backgrounds

III. TRAINING MOD	ELS & CURRICULA
Basic Principles	Document Name:
*A. Integration of practice & theory early	Page Number:
B. students form early identity with profession faculty demonstrate & model professional behavior	Document Name:
close working relationship student-faculty	Page Number:
C. Three FT years academic grad. study in: ethics & standards research, design & methodology	Document Name: Page Number:
statisticspsychological measurementhistory & systems of psychology	Document Name: Page Number:
Demonstrate competence in *(1) biological bases of behavior *(2) cognitive & affective bases of behavior *(3) social bases of behavior *(4) individual behavior
 Training in specific skills such as: psychodiagnosis psychological assessment (group & individual) intervention procedures (group & individual) consultation program evaluation etc. 	Document Name: Page Number:
 E. Values of sci. & prof. responsibility APA ethical standards APA providers of psychol. services APA psychol. & ed. test 	Document Name: Page Number:
F. Student access to other related fields	Document Name: Page Number:
G. Research training - sci. method not single paradigm	Document Name: Page Number:
H. Research topics relevant to student's training	Document Name: Page Number:
Research training appropriate to prof. psychologist, as natural setting as well as lab action research evaluation & follow up studies demonstration projects	Document Name: Page Number:
*J. Explicit, comprehensive system for education of students competence to practice • by prof. FT faculty augmented by practitioners • in areas of licensing exams, ABPP	Document Name: Page Number:

careful relative emphasis on skills
 K. Models for degrees scientist-practitioner Ph.D. contribute to knowledge 	Document Name: Page Number:
practitioner - Psy.D. demonstration of understanding	Document Name: Page Number:
L. Students made aware of licensing procedures	Document Name: Page Number:
 M. Models of training program specify model in writing program specify knowledge & skills required & methods of assessing them consistent with social responsibility & respect for cultural and individual differences programs evaluated in terms of model prof. training may be achieved by various formal & informal courses emphasis on student acquiring competence in broad area of professional practice commitment to life-long professional development a basic value for faculty & students 	Document Name: Page Number:
IV. FACULTY *General: Prof. psychologists need exposure to theory & knowledge, competencies, skills appropriate to human problems	Document Name: Page Numbers:
*Some faculty have professional competencies
Prof. faculty evidence of professional dedication, as by licensing and/or participation in CE
*Sensitive & responsive to individual differences
*No systematic exclusion by dept. for hiring, promotion or rotation on basis of Diversity to teach courses in IIIC & professional in the aggregate faculty should have • Experienced, productive with career commitment who provide leadership, supervision & modeling augmented by ones outside program's setting • Responsible faculty tenured or senior, role models, licensed, ABPP, or fellow • Prof. faculty had internships & stay abreast of new developments in field • Large enough for all duties One responsible for practicum • Clear identification of faculty responsible for each specialty

V. STUDENTS

Key factors to be evaluated

- intellectual & personal characteristics
- how selected
- · how helped by faculty to achieve goals

Students should have

- · commitment to social justice
- commitment to contributing to well-being of others

•

- cultivation of
 - self awareness
 - sensitive to others
 - tolerance for cultural & individual differences

*Information to prospective students

- specific goals of program
- unique style of program
- resources of program
- theoretical orientation of program
- professional functions prepared for
- prof. & research interests of faculty
- usual size of applicant pool
- acceptance rates
- attrition rates
- percentage of students who are
 - male
 - female
 - minority
 - handicapped
- age distribution
- availability & nature of
 - financial counseling
 - academic counseling
 - other support systems
- requirements for
 - full-time students
 - part-time students
- information on local living conditions
- no systematic exclusion on basis of
 - race
 - ethnic origin
 - sex
 - age
 - religion
 - physical handicap
- continuous assessment of student progress by faculty & appropriate action
- existence of specific advisement policies & mechanisms to handle student problems with due process

Document Name: Page Numbers:

VI.	FACILITIES Assess adequacy of following in relation to program specialty & geographical area & program goals	Document Name: Page Number:
A.	Teaching facilities classrooms
	seminar rooms
	observation facilities
	laboratory space forindividualsgroups
B.	Library
	• books
	• journals
	• reprints
	• microforms
C.	Office space faculty & support	Document Name: Page Number:
D.	Work space for students	Document Name: Page Number:
E.	Research space for	Document Name: Page Number:
F.	Materials & supplies	Document Name: Page Number:
G.	Practicum facilities Internship facilities	Document Name: Page Number:
H.	Calculators, typewriters, dictating equipment	Document Name: Page Number:
I.	Data analysis & computer facilities	Document Name: Page Number:
J.	Recorders (audio, video, closed circuit TV)	Document Name: Page Number:
K.	Building research equipment	Document Name: Page Number:
L.	Facilities for handicapped persons	Document Name: Page Number:

VII. PRACTICUM & INTERNSHIP TRAINING

A. Practicum

- close working relationship between faculty & practicum supervisors
- at service installations where training is a major function
- develops following capacities:
 - 1. commitment to social responsibility
 - 2. conceptualize human problems
 - 3. awareness of full range or human abilities
 - 4. understand one's own personality
 - 5. skill in interpersonal interaction
 - 6. ability to contribute to knowledge & practice
- · access to role models
- practicum begin early in doctoral program
- · practicum coordinated by faculty member
- minimum 400 hrs. total
 - 150 direct service
 - 75 supervised

Document Name: Page Number:
Document Name: Page Number:
Document Name: Page Number: