RE: New Dental Procedure Code

Please share this information with your administrative and billing staff.

Effective January 1, 2013 The American Dental Association procedure codes D1203 (topical application of fluoride-child) and D1204 (topical application of fluoride-adult) will become obsolete. The new procedure code that replaces D1203 and D1204 is D1208 (topical application of fluoride).

For claims on or after January 1, 2013 use procedure code D1208.

For questions regarding this information, please contact John Naujokaitis at john.naujokaitis@nebraska.gov or 402-471-6353.
