RE: CMS Education Tool Kits & Program Integrity Resources

Please share this information with administrative, clinical, and billing staff.

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), through the Center for Program Integrity, provides educational resources to educate providers, beneficiaries, and other stakeholders in promoting best practices and awareness of Medicaid fraud, waste, and abuse. There are several available resources, including print and electronic media, toolkits, train-the-trainer guides, webinars, videos, and other innovative strategies.

These resources are available through the CMS.gov website using this link:

<http://www.cms.gov/Medicare-Medicaid-Coordination/Fraud-Prevention/Medicaid-Integrity-Education/edmic-landing.html>

There are currently sixteen topics available. The topics include documentation, electronic health records, drug diversion, audits, and beneficiary card sharing. CMS frequently updates the resources made available on this webpage. Please check regularly for updates.

Providers are encouraged to use these educational materials as part of their employee education on false claims programs, for internal compliance audits, and for general information on compliance with federal regulations for Medicaid providers.

Additional information about Nebraska Medicaid Program Integrity is available on the Medicaid & Long-Term Care website as well as a page dedicated to CMS Education and Training for Medicaid Providers.
