

IN-HOME RESIDENTIAL HABILITATION

In-Home Residential Habilitation service is a habilitative intensive training service that provides individually tailored supports that assist with the acquisition, retention, or improvement in skills related to living in the community. In-Home Residential Habilitation service is for participants who live in their own home that is not provider operated or controlled.

These supports include adaptive skill development, habilitative community inclusion, transportation, opportunities for reinforcing skills taught in therapies, counseling sessions, or other settings, and social and leisure skill development that assist the participant to reside in the most integrated setting appropriate to his/her needs.

In-Home Residential Habilitation service includes prompting and supervising the participant in completing tasks including but not limited to, activities of daily living (ADL); health maintenance; meal preparation; laundry; teaching the use of police, fire, and emergency assistance; performing routine household activities to maintain a clean and safe home; and managing personal financial affairs.

In-Home Residential Habilitation Service may be self-directed.

Scope and Limitations:

- In-Home Residential Habilitation services may be provided in the participants' home or integrated settings with persons who do not have disabilities.
- This service cannot be provided in conjunction with habilitative community inclusion and companion services.
- The amount of prior authorized services is based on the participant's need as documented in the service plan, and within the participant's approved annual budget.
- In-Home Residential Habilitation service is billed at an hourly or daily rate.
- A participant receives a tiered service based upon needs identified in the Objective Assessment Process.
- Transportation is included in the rate.
- In-Home Residential Habilitation services will not overlap with, supplant, or duplicate other services provided through the Medicaid state Plan or HCBS Waiver services.
- In-Home Residential Habilitation service may be furnished by an independent or agency provider.
- This service shall exclude any services available through public education programs funded under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). This includes services not otherwise available through public education programs in the participant's local school district, including after school supervision and daytime services when school is not in session (i.e., summer breaks and/or scheduled school holidays, in-service days, etc.). Services cannot be provided during the school hours set by the local school district for the participant. Regular school hours and days apply for a child who receives home schooling.
- In-Home Residential Habilitation Services may be provided by a relative but not a legally responsible individual or guardian.