

Adjunct Eligible?

Use the chart below to help determine who in the family may be covered by adjunct eligibility.

Applicant or Participant	Medicaid Or Kids Connection	ADC	Food Stamps
Pregnant Woman	Self & All household members	Self & All household members	Self & All household members
Infant	Self & All household members	Self & All household members	* NA
Child Or foster child	Child only	Self & All household members	* NA
Any other household member	Child only	Self & All household members	Self & All household members

* The food stamp program identifies a head of household adult to receive food stamps for all household members, therefore, infants & children do not receive benefits individually but as a household. Children in the household of any adult receiving food stamps would be adjunct eligible.

CHILD ONLY

Only the child is adjunct eligible if the child is receiving.....

- Medicaid \ or Kids Connection
- Medicaid for Foster child under 5

ALL HOUSHOLD

All members of the household are adjunct income eligible if ANYONE in their household.....

- Is an ADC recipient
- Is a pregnant woman currently on Medicaid
- Is an infant or unborn infant currently on Medicaid
- Is receiving Food Stamps
