

Title V Maternal & Child Health (MCH) Block Grant
 Five-Year State Action Plan Table

INSTRUCTIONS: Reflect on your understanding of the issues as they pertain to your community and/or organization. Suggest strategies for the objectives below. When possible, provide references to source of documentation of strategies being evidence-based or evidence informed or provide the URL address to the source. If submitting online, any additional narrative will be accommodated in the scrolling text. Use the space at the bottom to suggest additional objectives and related strategies.

8. Sexually Transmitted Diseases (STD) among women
 (and youth) of child bearing age

Five-Year Objectives	Strategies: Year Two (Oct. 1, 2016 - Sept. 30, 2017)
8a. By 2020, increase by 10% use of preventive health care services by young adult women.
8b. By 2020, decrease by 10% rates of chlamydia among African American women ages 20 – 44 years.
8c. By 2020, decrease by 10% rates of chlamydia among Nebraska women ages 20 – 44 years.
8d. By 2020, decrease by 10% rates of chlamydia among Nebraska youth.
8e. By 2020, increase by 10% adolescent use of preventive health care services.
8f. By 2020,	