

Title V Maternal & Child Health (MCH) Block Grant Five-Year State Action Plan Table

INSTRUCTIONS: Reflect on your understanding of the issues as they pertain to your community and/or organization. Suggest strategies for the objectives below. When possible, provide references to source of documentation of strategies being evidence-based or evidence informed or provide the URL address to the source. If submitting online, any additional narrative will be accommodated in the scrolling text. Use the space at the bottom to suggest additional objectives and related strategies.

6. Access to and Adequacy of Prenatal Care

Five-Year Objectives	Strategies: Year Two (Oct. 1, 2016 to Sept. 30, 2017)
6a. By 2020, increase by 10% the percent of women starting prenatal care in the first trimester.
6b. By 2020, increase by 10% the percent of American Indian women starting prenatal care in the first trimester.
6c. By 2020, increase by 10% the percent of pregnant women under age 20 starting prenatal care in the first trimester.
6d. By 2020, Nebraska will implement a strategic plan for preconception health, with data collection, evaluation and quality improvement practices in place.
6e. By 2020,	