

Children with Elevated Blood Lead Levels, 2022

by Local Health Department

Number of Cases

- 10 - 13
- 14 - 19
- 20 - 31
- 32 - 46
- 47 - 560

County Boundary

0 25 50 Miles

Data are provisional and subject to change.

An elevated blood lead case is defined as a child less than 6 years old with a confirmed or suspect blood lead level greater than or equal to 3.5 micrograms per deciliter in calendar year 2022.

Counts are shown after Local Health Department name. Data source: Nebraska Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program.

NEBRASKA

Good Life. Great Mission.

DEPT. OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES