

CREDENTIAL INFORMATION FOR MILITARY SPOUSES

Temporary Credential: If you have an active credential in another state and you are a military spouse, you may be issued a temporary credential pending completion of the permanent credential requirements. A temporary credential specifically for military spouses is available under Neb. Rev. Stat. §38-129.01 and is issued for a period not to exceed 1 year. Please review the following requirements to obtain a temporary credential and those listed for a permanent credential on the profession-specific application page to determine which process is right for you.

To apply for this temporary credential, you need to be a resident of Nebraska and submit the following:

- The attached application
- A copy of your military dependent identification card identifying you as the spouse of an active duty member of the United States Armed Forces
- A copy of your spouse's military orders reflecting an active-duty assignment in Nebraska
- A copy of your credential from another state or jurisdiction
- A copy of the statutes, rules, and regulations governing your credential which indicate standards that are similar to Nebraska's licensing requirements.
- The fees required for the application for the credential and for the temporary credential (if applicable).

Note: This does not apply to a license to practice dentistry, including a temporary license under section 38-1123.
