Application for ARRT Bone Densitometry Equipment Operator Examination

(Keep this Page for Your Records)

Exam Fee – The exam fee is $100. The exam fee must be paid each time you apply to take the exam.

Exam Dates and Times

The ARRT Bone Densitometry Equipment Operator Exam is a self-scheduled examination. Approximately 14 days after you submit the attached application, you will receive a packet from the ARRT containing complete instructions on scheduling a test date. Test dates can usually be arranged on weekdays between 8am and 5pm. Test sites are located in Lincoln, Omaha, and North Platte. You must take your exam within the ninety-day window assigned to you by the ARRT. IF YOU DO NOT TAKE YOUR TEST WITHIN NINETY-DAYS YOU WILL FORFEIT YOUR FEE.

Score Reports – Exam results will be mailed to you approximately four weeks after you take the test.

How many times can I take the exam?

You must pay the $100 fee each time you take the exam. You can take the exam up to three times without restriction. An applicant who fails to obtain a passing score on the third attempt must wait one year and complete continuing education coursework before reapplying for the exam.

Licensure

The attached application is not a license application. It is an application to take the ARRT exam only. To receive a license, you must complete an additional application after you pass the exam. All applicants who pass the examination will be sent a license application.
