

How do I know what certification program(s) for Pharmacy Technicians in Nebraska are accepted by the Board of Pharmacy?

The Nebraska Board of Pharmacy is accepting the following certifications to comply with the mandates of LB37. This listing is current as of the date indicated at the bottom of the page.

National Certification Program offered by the National Healthcareer Association –

<http://www.nhanow.com/certifications/pharmacy-technician> (The ExCPT exam is accepted in all states that require national certification except for North Dakota and North Carolina. Approval in these states is underway.)

National Certification Program offered by the Pharmacy Technician Certification Board -

<http://www.ptcb.org/> (national certification accepted in all states)

State Certification Program offered through the UNMC College of Pharmacy:

<http://www.unmc.edu/pharmacy/programs/pharmtech/index.html> (Nebraska specific certification only)

State Certification Programs offered by Southeast Community College -

<https://www.southeast.edu/pharmacytech/>

State Certification (participation limited)

Certification in Nuclear Pharmacy (limited to Pharmacy Technicians employed by Cardinal Health)

State Certification Program offered by Nebraska Methodist College

<https://www.methodistcollege.edu/allied-health/certificates/pharmacy-technician>

State Certification Program offered by Quality Career Pathways

<https://enrollatquality.com/pharm-tech-calendar-2020/>